Sum 14-27-40

From

Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

To

B. NAGAPPA, Esq., Bar-at-Law.,
Secretary to Government,
Law Department,
B A N G A L O R E.

Sir,

I am directed to state that one Daffedar and 6 peons have been sanctioned temporarily in the Chief Court consequent on the appointment of the fourth Judge. These new men have not been provided with the annual or special clothing, as in the case of permanent peons and Daffedars. Although it is necessary to provide them with the usual clothing, the Chief Court does not consider it possible to meet the cost thereof viz. about Rs.325/- out of the budget grants made to the Chief Court for the current year; but it considers that a laced turban to the temporary Daffedar, who is a permanent peon of the Chief Court and consequently has been supplied with the annual white clothing, may be supplied as he has to carry the mace before the Judge. This will cost only Rs.6-4-0 (with 25% extra allowed).

I am accordingly to request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the purchase of a laced turban for the temporary Daffedar at a cost not exceeding of Rs.6-4-0 to be met out of the contingent grant of the Chief Court for 1927-28.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A. Sreenivasaragavachari
